

Who We Are

Founded in 2010 with current management team took over in 2016, Tian Ruixiang Holdings Ltd. is an insurance broker distributing insurance products underwritten by insurance companies operating in China to individual or institutional customers. We distribute a wide range of insurance products mainly categorized into two major groups: (1) property and casualty insurance, such as automobile insurance, commercial property insurance, liability insurance; and (2) life insurance, such as individual life insurance and group life insurance.

As of April 2020, we have relationships with over 40 insurance companies in the PRC, and therefore are able to offer a variety of insurance products, including 57 property and casualty insurance products and 131 life insurance products, to our customers.